

A group of young women are dancing in a modern school hallway with large windows. They are wearing casual clothing like jeans, sneakers, and colorful jackets. The hallway has a tiled floor and a dark ceiling with recessed lights.

Kuopion klassillinen lukio

Founded

1940

Renovated

2006

Students

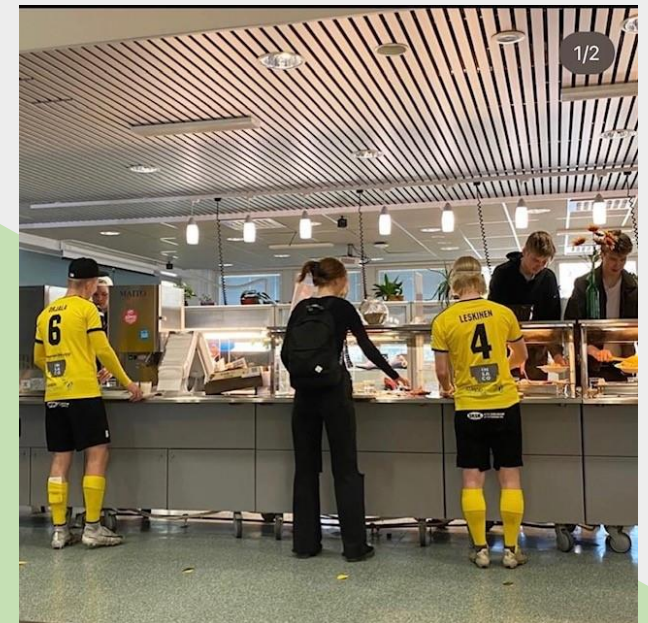

≈ 660

Teachers

≈ 40

Klassikka is a sport-oriented school

- High school with the Olympic committee Sports Academy programme.
- Study combines basic education and sport
- For athletes representing the national top level of their age group

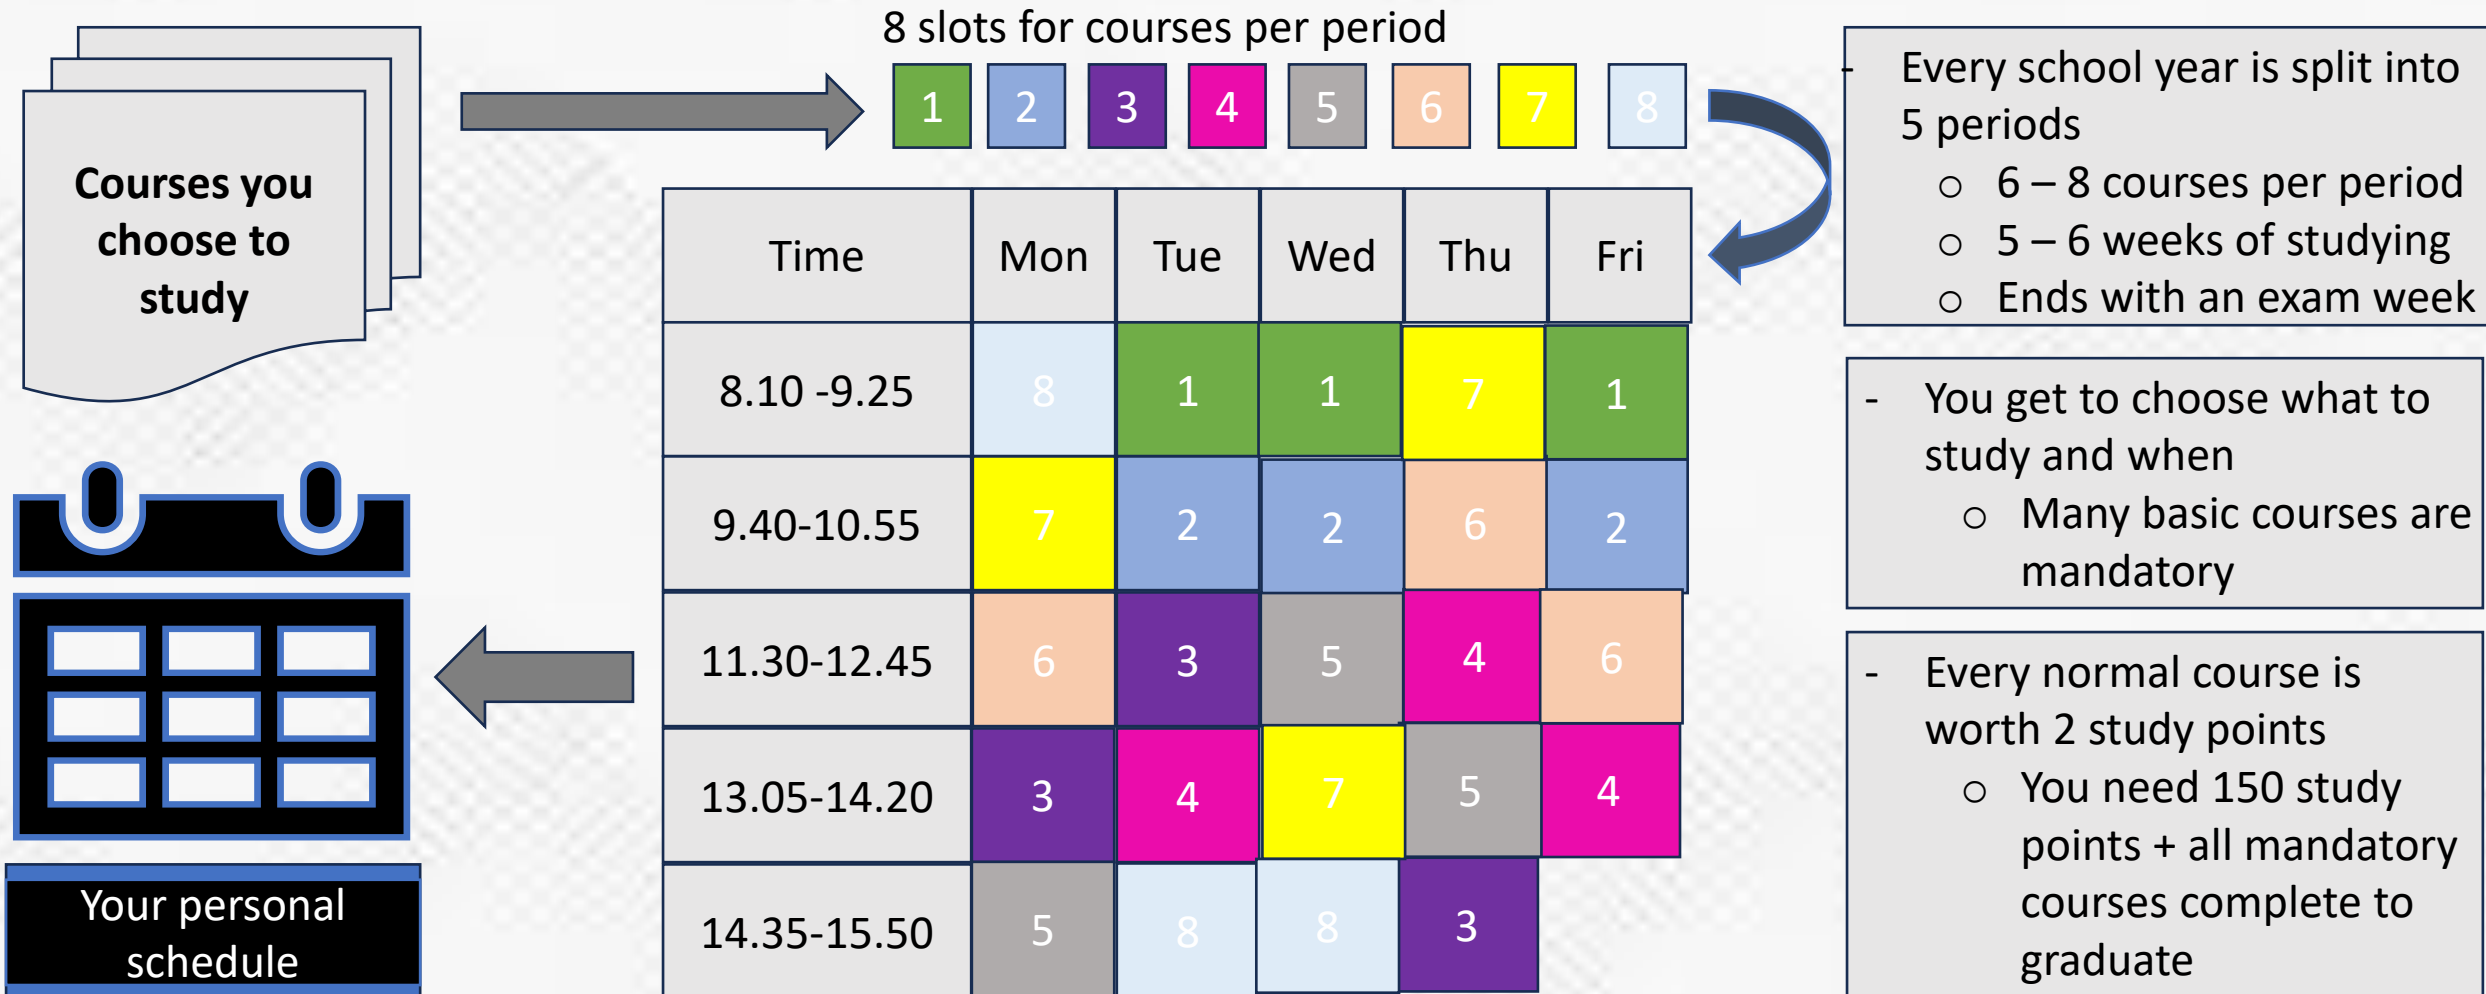

Studying in Klassikka - digital and free

- High school studies are free for everyone in Finland.
 - Free laptops, school lunches, bus tickets etc
- All school books are online
 - No more carrying physical books
 - Many people still handwrite notes
 - All materials are easily accessible

Week schedule

In Klassikka students get to make their own schedules

Events

Klassikka and its students hold a variety of events throughout the school year. Some events are limited to one grade while many are for everyone.

